

COMPANY PROFILE

Since 1992, Mr. Bassil opened the doors of the Bassil Jewelry in Batroun, Lebanon. Bassil began adding his own flavour to the industry. We're very proud to be one of the Solid family-owned Jewelry designer in Lebanon. Today the company is run by second generation, who had to work their way through new and fresh ideas.

Our traditions, quality and passion for jewelry creation has no limit. We look to use only the very unique, stylish ideas, and working hard to commit to the art of premium jewelry.

We believe that the best quality we are offering, is because we keep ourselves involved with every single gram purchased, and always looking to touch the best of the best distributors worldwide.

Uniqueness is our making process title. Our factory teams use their special skills combined with the latest in modern manufacturing, high levels of training, equipment and techniques to create designs that look and as special as you need.

We are looking forward to expand and reach new customers to deliver our kind of beauty in the jewelry art making...
